

WE NOMINATE

Jacques Maritain, one of the remarkable philosophers of the 20th century and a full-time Princetonian for the past three years, who this coming Tuesday will become the first recipient of the newly-created Aquinas Award of the American Catholic Philosophical Association. Particularly distinguished in the field of Christian philosophy, and with a wide range of hard experience in contemporary affairs, this 68-year old native of France belongs—in the words of an admiring associate—"to that small company of great spirits in any age from whom one may learn."

It was in 1943, while he was completing his third year as French Ambassador to the Vatican and the spring after he had headed the French delegation to the UNESCO Conference, that he was called to the University's Department of Philosophy. During the early stages of World War II he had previously spent a year in residence here as a Visiting Professor and in the fall of 1946 had returned long enough to play a leading role in one of the headline-making Bicentennial Conferences and to receive the honorary degree of doctor of letters.

Maritain, the author of more than two dozen books, no one of which is easy going for the casual reader, occupies the place of honor among living Roman Catholic philosophers and his published works constitute almost an encyclopedia of religious thought. Once described as a delightful ascetic "who doesn't smoke during Lent but always has his matches," he is primarily responsible for the revival of interest in the Christian philosophic system of the 13th century, but vehemently insists that his so-called "anti-modern position," endeavoring to unite Christian thought and progress, is really "ultra-modern."

Born in Paris, Maritain studied at the University of Paris, where he met his wife, Raissa, a poet and writer in her own right, with whom he was converted to Catholicism in 1906. Prior to embarking upon his career as an "independent philosopher," he joined the editorial staff of a large publishing house and at one time—in making ends meet—edited a Dictionary of Practical Life concerned with such non-philosophic matters as knitting, crocheting, hunting, fishing and jujitsu. A series of lectures at the Catholic Institute of Paris in 1913 was the formal starting-point for this philosopher-theologian who is now known throughout the Western World and still holds a professorship at Toronto's Institute of Medieval Studies.

For understanding and insisting that "decorative faith is nowadays not enough;" for his achievements as a philosopher and social critic in an age "when philosophy itself seems much like an anachronism;" for lending distinction to the community he has adopted as his home; he is, TOWN TOPICS' nominee for

Random Notes. Spring arrived
Wednesday morning at 5:26, ushered in to the tune of ice being cracked by automobile tires humming over frozen puddles on country roads. It was a cool 29 degrees, but fortunately not close to the record low for the date of 9.

Magistrate Louis R. Gerber of Princeton Township has let it be known that residents of the municipality who continue to display out-of-state plates on their cars are in for tickets. His drive will begin April 1, the day after New Jersey 1950 plates expire.

Approval has been granted by the borough council (4 to 2, with Councilmen Voorhees and West dissenting) for sale of the Joseph T.
Ryerson home at 457 Nassau Street to the Tax Institute of New York.
A zoning variance was granted to permit the research organization to move into the "A" residential district, with the agreement calling for no request on its part for tax exemption.

Three out-of-town residents have had their licenses revoked for periods from 30 days to a year for driving at rates up to 75 miles an hour on Stockton Street, an invariable speedway.

Speed skating and figure skating champions in considerable profusion will partake in a gala show in Baker Rink this weekend. For details, see Sports in Short, page nine.

Borough officials agree with the contention advanced here in the past that dangerous traffic conditions at the intersection of Bayard Lane, Nassau and Stockton streets, and the Nassau-Harrison Street corner can best be alleviated by the installation of traffic lights. However, the State Highway Department, which maintains the thoroughfares involved, reports the volume of traffic insufficient to warrant such action.

As baseball candidates warm up in Dillon Gym these days, the names of one informal battery would make national headlines if an umpire announced it on some future occasion: "Tom Dewey, pitching; George Gallup, catching."

New Headmaster at Hun. Paul R.
Chesebro, whose 22 years of teaching experience have been evenly divided between The Hun School and Princeton High, this week was named headmaster of the Edger-stone institution, John P. Poe, chairman of the board of trustees,
announced. Mr. Chesebro will succeed Admiral Frederick G. Richards, headmaster since 1949, who submitted his resignation earlier this year but agreed, at the request of the trustees, to continue with his duties until his successor could be named.

"We have asked Admiral Richards to accept appointment to the board of trustees," Mr. Poe said,
"to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dean Robert K. Root. He is considering his ability to serve in the light of personal commitments for the future."

Thomas B. Hartmann, Hun's director of admissions, has been named acting headmaster until the end of the end of the Spring term.
Mr. Chesebro will be inducted at that time to enable him to begin preparations for the academic year opening in September.

A graduate of Amherst in 1926,

the new headmaster held a chemistry fellowship here for three years, receiving his master of arts degree in 1927. In 1929, he was appointed to the Hun faculty, teaching mathematics and sciences there until 1940. For the last five years of that period, he was assistant headmaster under the late Dr. John G. Hun.

Since 1940, Mr. Chesebro has taught at the high school, served as a guidance counselor, on the recently-formed Lay Council and as head of the Teachers' Associa-

Progress Report. Directors of "Operation Nassau" announced this week that public interest in the construction of a chrome-and-neon diner on Nassau Street "has resulted in the reopening of negotiations with the owner." Since the original letter on the subject was published here a fortnight ago, the matter has received increasing attention and it is now hoped that modified plans for the diner's exterior can be made.

The topic was roundly discussed at Monday night's meeting of the Business Association in Avalon. No formal action was taken, but the basic concepts of "Operation Nassau" policy in guiding color and design of the town's business section received the association's support.

News of the Theatres

THE McCARTER
The Skin of Our Teeth is being prepared by the Community Players for presentation next Friday and Saturday, March 30 and 31. Nine years ago, the Thornton Wilder comedy won the Pulitzer Prize and today its quota of joy is undiminished. The story of Mr. and Mrs. Antrobus and their maid, Sabina, survivors of many a crisis and ever-ready for more, the production offers a full evening of rib-tickling situations.

Paul Barstow and Kelley Ashby are cast in the roles of the Antrobuses, with Charline Mernon as Sabina. Others with leading-parts are Philip Ashby, John English, Ali Bekessy, Leslie Van Zandt, Henry Siegle, John DeBrito, Carl Collyer, Kent Carr and Helen Hankinson. The play is under the direction of the able John Becker; his assistants include Mrs. Myrtle Centano, Mrs. Gordon Knox and Theodore Bashkow. Tickets ($1.80 to $3) at the University Store and Zavelle's.

THE PLAYHOUSE
Payment on Demand (Thurs.-Sat.) is principally another piece of spotlight acting by Bette Davis, cast in her long familiar role of a hateful woman. The plot records the virtual breakup of her marriage (after 20 years) to Barry Sullivan, manages to keep the audience pretty well interested in the question of whether he should forgive her selfish, domineering traits and take her back again.

Lullaby of Broadway (Sun.-Tues.) is purely a hit parade in Technicolor, as a dozen top-drawer favorites are brought forth in a continuous song & dance act by Doris Day and newcomer Gene Nelson. Among those to be heard, in addition to the title song: "Somebody Loves Me," "Please Don't Talk About Me When I'm Gone," "Shanty in Old Shanty Town," "Just One of Those Things." The plot, involving the efforts of friends to keep Miss Day from learning of her mother's lowly status after one-time fame, is as weak as they come.

Royal Wedding (Wed.-Sat.), far better than its immediate predecessor at The Playhouse, is Fred Astaire's latest and a tribute to his ceaseless ability. The carefree plot of a brother and sister who dance their way through life until marriage eventually separates them is biographical in nature. Jane Powell is cast as Adele Astaire and makes a good partner for the master of the tap and the soft shoe routine. Tuneful and lighthearted throughout.

THE GAROEN
Target Unknown (Fri.-Sat.) spins a yarn of Allied airmen forced down in Nazi-held France and forced to divulge plans for a future raid. Good drama is mixed with boy scout heroics as they outwit their captives to warn the U. S. bombers of the trap being set for them. Marc Stevens, Robert Douglas.

Under the Gun (Mon.-Tues.) is a prison drama in which a convict, appointed a trusty and given a gun, knows he will be pardoned if he can shoot a fellow inmate seeking.

Rehearsing members of the Community Players took time out at Avalon to pose for this scene from their forthcoming production, Thornton Wilder's Pulitzer Prize comedy, "The Skin of Our Teeth." Charline Merson is the source of the statistical hunt, with Philip Ashby and John English in front of her, Kelley Ashby at her right and Henry Siegle and Paul Barstow the top men on the totem pole. Bicycle owners will pay an annual $5 registration fee.

Motorists may drive at 50 miles an hour, will be given tickets for going so slowly as to endanger the normal flow of traffic on principal highways.

Automobile registration plates and drivers' licenses will be mailed to applicants each year.

Fines for overtime parking and similar offenses, made standard throughout the state, would start at $3 for the first offense, could go as high as $10 for repeated violations.

Festival Plans. The Y.W.C.A. is putting finishing touches to its International Festival, a colorful program set for next Friday which has gained in popularity each year. The gay presentation of the songs and dances of many lands is scheduled for production in the high school auditorium.

Variety is the keynote, with the evening offering such numbers as native dances from Mexico, Thailand, Sweden, Korea; American square dancing; a Hungarian classical dance and a group of Latvian DP's. A Finnish pianist will play, Korean folk songs will be heard, as will the combined chorus of the Y.W. and Group Arts (directed by the Rev. Benjamin J. Anderson) and the much-traveled seminary Choir (directed by David H. Jones.)

Residents of the Princeton area, some permanent, others transient, will perform in costume to tell something of the world of music —Continued on Page 6—

as it exists in the land from which they came. A popular feature of last year's festival will be enlarged next week, when the Food Mart is again set up in the school cafeteria. Various dishes typical of foreign kitchens will be offered for sale—last Spring they proved to be real taste treats.

Mrs. Bruce Metzger, festival chairman, is being assisted by these committee heads: Mrs. William Chamberlin and Mrs. Charles Link, patrons; Mrs. Kenneth Ritchie, publicity; Mrs. Collie Herron, ushers; Mrs. Arthur Buddington, invitations; Mrs. Walter Beers, hostesses; Mrs. Paul Gebhardt and Mrs. George Shepherd, Jr., Food Mart.

Mrs. William Bahcock and Mrs. Hugh Kerr, Jr. are co-chairmen of the Y.W.'s World Fellowship Committee, which sponsors the festival for the benefit of the association's work abroad. "Festival cards," good for admission to the performance, may be purchased at either Y.W.C.A. in town or at the auditorium next Friday. Last year's show was a sell out.

Easter Activities. Two events always associated with Easter weekend in Princeton are scheduled, respectively, for Saturday morning at 10 and Monday evening at 8:15. On the former occasion, children of pre-school and elementary grade ages are invited to be the Lions Club's guests at the high school athletic field to partake in the annual Easter Egg hunt. Paul Giroux, Arthur Turney and Chester Page will be in charge with over 700 eggs to be hidden.

Princeton Engine Co. No. 1 will give its traditional Easter Monday novelty party at 8:15 p. m. in St. Paul's School auditorium. Numerous prizes will be offered; admission is 50 cents and the public is invited. The committee, headed by Henry Burger, includes John Cashill, Arthur Brennan, George Cahill, Walter Coan, Samuel Davidson, Walter Foley, Bernard Glover, William Guinn, Frank Haupt, James Hogarty, William Larkin, Joseph McCloskey, Jay Murray, Alfred Paeker, Frederick Traeger and William Whitley.

Service Resumed. The Council of Community Services, through its health committee of which Mrs. Dorr C. Skeels is chairman, has announced plans to resume the visiting housekeeper service originated three years ago. At the time, facilities were established so that a housekeeper could be provided as a

"GIVE ME THIS '51 DODGE for long life...dependability"

"I've driven Dodge cars for years...know from experience that you just can't beat a Dodge for DEPENDABILITY"

—Says Don B. Alford, Chicago, Ill.

Here's why Dodge delivers more miles per dollar

EVERYTHING about this great new '51 Dodge—the way it looks, feels, rides and handles—tells you that here's a car that's built to last.

It's a car that's stunning to look at, with plenty of head, leg and shoulder room—a car that's engineered from bumper to bumper to last longer, go farther and deliver more miles per dollar over the years to come.

Spend Five Minutes With Us

Five short minutes behind the wheel will tell you why this is the car for you—for the years ahead.

You'll find that the new Oriflow Shock Absorbers not only give you a truly new kind of ride—but the resulting smoothness and freedom from wheel "hop" and "bounce" mean less car wear, prolong car life. Driving is easier, safer, tension-free.

NEW KIND OF RIDE! New Oriflow shock absorbers let you float down roads so bad they stop other cars. No wheel "hop" or bounce, no pitch or side-sway.

GYRO-MATIC, lowest priced automatic transmission lets you drive without shifting. Safer, too, because you retain full control of the car at all times.

Famous Dodge Fluid Drive, with its smoother starts and stops, "cushions" all moving parts from engine to the rear wheels—adds to the life of your Dodge, helps give better tire mileage, lowers maintenance costs.

Come In Today

See how you could pay $1,000 more for a car and still not get all the extra room, handling ease, rugged dependability of this new '51 Dodge.

substitute in a family for a mother who was ill or temporarily out of town.

That service will be restored to the community, and will be broadened so that it can extend to the chronically ill on a regular, part-time basis. "In some cases," Mrs. Skeels points out, "two or three hours of help a day, three times weekly, from an outside worker is sufficient to maintain the home routine."

Workers, who will be trained in a course to start during the latter part of April, will be paid at a fixed rate for whatever time they can give, with half a day weekly the minimum. Those interested in applying for such remunerative public service should telephone the Service League (3282) at the Y.W.C.A., 202 Nassau.

Stacked Deck. A minor classic in the field of newspaper reporting was handed to us this week and bears reprinting. It's an Associated Press story, which drew the headline: "What Cards! Poker Faces Go to Pokey When Court Holds Aces." The account follows:

Federal Judge Ben Harrison looked at a full house when he strode to the bench and ordered his clerk to call the calendar. "High, Low, Jack," cried Clerk Murray Wire. A moment of silence ensued. "And the game!" called a hoarse voice from the rear.

There was the deuce to pay. Spectators roared, and Judge Harrison promptly took a hand.

"Get this straight!" he admonished, "we can open this session without the aid of a joker."

With a flush of embarrassment, the clerk checked his cards and stood pat. "Quong Hi, Wong Low and Luey Jak!" he called.

Three pokerfaced Chinese shuffled forward. Each admitted cross—Continued on Page 14

The New Jersey Poll

VOTERS IN STATE APPROVE DRAFTING OF 18-YEAR-OLDS
BY NARROW 5-TO-4 MARGIN

Drafting 18-year-olds is approved by New Jersey voters, but the vote is fairly close, interviews with an accurate cross-section of the state's voters reveal.

The question of an 18-year-old draft has become a highly controversial one in Washington. Secretary of Defense Marshall and his top advisers advocate just such a move. But some members of Congress are flatly opposed to lowering the draft age from 19 to 18.

To find out where the New Jersey public stands on the 18-year-old draft issue, New Jersey Poll staff reporters recently put this question to voters in a statewide survey: "Do you favor or oppose drafting 18-year-olds into the armed forces?" Results were:

Favor	51%
Qualified favor	5
Oppose	40
Undecided	4

The majority of those who gave "qualified favor" answers said either, "Draft them but don't send them overseas until they are 19," or "Draft them but don't send them into combat for one year."

A number of interesting findings come out of today's survey. For example, men as a group are much more in favor of calling up 18-year-olds than are women. And younger adults favor lowering the draft age; whereas older adults are opposed to such a step.

The sex and age vote follows:

	Opp.	Fav.	Qual.	Unde-
Women	48%	46	5	3
Men	35%	57	5	3
21 - 29	29%	61	7	3
30 - 44	31%	58	6	5
45 & older	55%	40	2	3

Still another interesting finding is the difference of opinion among the various educational levels. In general, the more education people have had, the more inclined they are to favor the drafting of 18-year-olds.

Grade or no	High School	College
Scheduling	53%	31%
Oppose	40	29%
Qual. Favor	2	61
Undecided	3	7

Two other findings also worthy of mention are:

Three out of every four World War II veterans interviewed favor calling up the younger men; and

There is close agreement on the proposed legislation among the rank and file of Republican and Democratic Party members throughout the state. Exactly the same proportion in each group (53%) favors a draft of 18-year-olds, and about two out of five in each of the political groups are opposed to drafting the younger men at this time.

Congressional Approval Favored. One of the big questions debated both in and out of Congress during the past three months is whether President Truman has the right to send troops to Europe without the approval of Congress.

Strong Ball Team. Along about five months from now, Princeton's basketball team has high hopes of being the national intercollegiate champion. The N.C.A.A. tournament, the most prestigious of all sports, will be held in New York City at the Madison Square Garden in the last week of January. The Tigers have never been quite good enough to win a bid for the tournament, but this time around, they're not only aiming for their third first-place finish, as in many years they are confident that they want very much to get to New York. Yet, the team is stilling 50 percent of a team's strength in college ball, the Tigers are a long jump ahead of most others in the country. They are so far ahead that they can provide a sure thing that they can provide good hitting and good defensive work to translate their strength on the court into an unbeatable combination.

With the opener set for a week from Saturday against C.C.N.Y., person Dickman is carefully improved steadily under Dickman's coaching and in late May came up with a whole of a relief performance in that contest against Penn State. But when the Bruins were facing New York, they slipped to Rutgers, also in the consolation game.

On hand as a sophomore is a young righthander whose arrival in the varsity would have been greeted with heartfelt thanks in normal years. This is not to say that Dave Sisler isn't more than a little bit off his normal pace, but with Chirugel and the rest of the team, he's got a fighting chance for a starting assignment, as his freshman record is.

Last Spring, he won six, including a no-hitter against Hull, was beaten and compiled an earned run average of 0.37. It's his presence in support of the two junior pitchers that makes for such a bright estimate of 1995.

Above and beyond this pitching length, of course, the Orange and sleek must improve on its weakness at few seasons. Last year, for example, the team batting average was not a single regular season played all season to go in when Ed Irvin started to go in April, he cornered the third job and wound up with high-creditable, .375 but he saw action in only 15 of the 22 games.

In addition to Irvin, Dickman expects this year that power at the plate will come from Mike Kearns, Captain Will Prior, Joe Golden and Bill Tryon. The latter two are phenomores who have a good chance of breaking into the lineup, Golden, a southpaw, at first and Tryon in the outfield.

Prior, of course, will be behind the plate and is counted on as the team's long-ball hitter. Golden will be the pitcher, and the assignment to battle John Emery for the starting spot at first, with the veteran Larry Becker and a pair of reserve infielders, Hoby Kretzler and Jack Blessing, aiming to fill Armstrong's post at second.

If Jim Fairchild's arm is in shape, he'll go at shortstop; if not, Blessing will get a try there. Irvin has the job sewed up at third.

The outfield is a big question mark, with the answer to be supplied by those who can hit. Tryon, McKerns and Jack Reydell, varsity holdover, are three good bets. If Backer loses out at second, he may be the best bet in the outfield. Chirugi and Sisler will be there if they can extend power on the attack. Bill Callahan of the sophomore hockey line also has his eye on a fly-chasing job.

The weather hasn't been too helpful, and odds are the squad won't have more than a few days' practice on the diamond itself before the opener next week. Thereafter, five games are scheduled in the next six days, Manhattan, Temple, Moravian and N.Y.U. coming into University Field before the Tigers go to Philadelphia on Saturday, April 7, to open their league season with Penn.

Skating Show. Moving into Baker rink on Saturday with little fanfare but likely to present one of the best ice shows seen here in years are the first annual New Jersey Indoor Speed Skating Championships. Afternoon and evening events (3 and 8 p.m.) have attracted more than 200 entrants, among them Eastern and national cham-

In between the various races, a number of topflight figure skaters will perform. This list will include Lu Ann and Vera Ruth Elliott of the Princeton Skating Club; Walter Muellbrunner, its professional, and Irene Maguire, who teamed together so well in last week's ice carnival; 11-year old Ellie Sonnenman, who won a major title two years ago.

ago; comedians, barrel-jumpers and leading representatives of various ice shows, including the Barbara Ann Scott troupe.

Competing for one or more of the 70 trophies to be awarded during the tournament will be such speed skating stars as Raymond Blum, last year's outdoor North American titleholder and a member of the U. S. Olympic team in 1948; Robert Jahn, Middle Atlantic outdoor champion; Donald McDermott, selected for membership on the 1952 Olympic team; Gwendolyn DuBois, ladies' senior outdoor champion; and a number of others who are frequently in the headlines in the sport.

Tickets ($1.20) are available at Frank's Sport Shop, 170 Nassau, and will be at the door. The single price is good for admission to both the qualifying trials in the afternoon and the finals at night.

Kearns of Princeton. The value of Mike Kearns to Princeton's experienced basketball team, an apparent factor all season long, becomes even clearer now that the final statistics are at hand. The Tiger captain was named to the Eastern League's all-star team, a worthy successor to George Sella and Bernie Adams who were on it two years running.

With Mike were John Azary of Columbia, Paul Gerwin of Cornell, Ernie Beck of Penn (the league's top scorer) and Ed Smith of Harvard. Azary rightfully succeeded Sella as the league's "most valuable player."

Kearns was the iron man of the past season, playing 467 of a possible 480 minutes, an average of just under 39 a game. He was sixth in total scoring with 154 points, tied for seventh in assists and ranked well up in gathering rebounds although that was not his primary assignment.

Mike was noteworthy for his contributions as a player but will be best remembered for his qualifications as a captain. Far more than being just a good athlete who was popular with his teammates, Kearns was an inspiring leader in the basic sense of the word.

Other league figures reveal incidental items of interest: Princeton, finishing fourth, took more shots from the floor than any other.

er team and allowed its opponents less. The Tigers were second in team scoring to Columbia, averaging 57.1 points a game to the Lions' record-breaking 62.9. In all, 11 records were set and another tied.

Busy Sports Schedule. The Spring season in general is one that is expected to prove enjoyable to Princeton sport followers. On two occasions, interesting doubleheaders will be staged at University Field as the strong Nassau lacrosse team, moves in for a contest after a baseball game. The crew will be on Carnegie for races with Navy; Penn, Columbia and Rutgers in the Childs Cup regatta; and the Eastern sprint championships.

The championship tennis team has numerous matches scheduled for the Church Courts, and is likely to repeat its fine 1950 record when it swept to the Eastern title and won all ten of its engagements. All of the Orange and Black Spring outfits, with the possible exception of the 150-lb. crew, are figured to have good seasons and to finish above the 500 mark.

Short Notes. Bob Brawner retained his Eastern intercollegiate titles at 100 and 200 yards in the breaststroke at Cambridge last weekend, winning without difficulty. He'll get considerably more competition at Columbus, Ohio, this Friday and Saturday when he swims in the N.C.A.A. meet and the following weekend will be in Texas for the A.A.U. championships. But no one figures to beat the world's champion.

Brad Glass, Eastern heavyweight wrestling champion, will try his luck in the national college tournament at Bethlehem, Pa., this weekend. Reports here are that Homer Barr, whom he beat at Penn State a fortnight ago, isn't entered but one or more of the western or southern entries could give the Tiger sophomore all the opposition he can handle. Oklahoma A. & M. is an invincible power on the mat.

Two Princetonians, Buster Thomas of Princeton High and Bill Hogarty of Hun, were on the all-county basketball team named by the Trenton Times. Howard Sweeney was picked for the third team, with Ray Davis, Tom Perks and Tom Smith of the high school getting honorable mention together with Bill Rhodes of Hun.

Spring football practice started this week, with Charlie Caldwell looking backward to the 24 lettermen he lost at the end of the last season and thinking of additional manpower losses by next September through the draft. Even without further defections, he is confronted with the terrific problem of building an entire offensive platoon around Dick Kazmaier. The other ten starters on the attacking unit of Princeton's 1950 champions are seniors.

One of the toughest jobs will be finding a replacement for George Chandler, quarterback for the past three seasons. His loss alone will mean a much slower start for the Tigers next fall, for the intricate single-wing pattern isn't mastered until a newcomer can try it out under fire.

Seven practice sessions are scheduled during the days before Spring vacation starts on March 31. Following a ten-day break, three weeks of drills will be climaxed by the annual intrasquad game on April 28.

highest honor of the American Society of Industrial Engineers

THE DURABILITY built into every "step-down" designed Hudson has — for the second consecutive year — been honored by the American Society of Industrial Engineers!

Among all motor cars, Hudson alone has received the Merit Award, the A.S.I.E.'s highest honor. Hudson is cited for "leadership in research, engineering, design and manufacture!"

†We have a free booklet for you explaining the many advantages of "step-down" design.

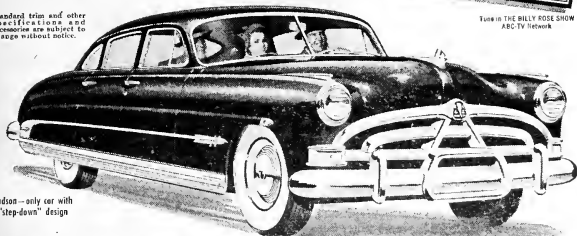

This means that in a Hudson you reap the rewards of highest quality — in rugged, high-compression engines... in the rigid Monobuilt body-and-frame... in beautiful styling that will set the pace for years to come.

Hudson is a car designed and built to stay young—the most durable car your money can buy!

*Trade-mark and patents pending

Standard trim and other specifications and accessories are subject to change without notice.

PRINCIPALS IN 'BRIGADOON,' MUSICAL COMEDY THE HIGH SCHOOL WILL GIVE

George B. Thomas Photo
Leading roles in the tuneful musical now in rehearsal at Princeton High School have been assigned to Tom Robbins, Bruno Maddaloni, Vivian Wright, Bryan Rittenhouse, Keith Rowan and Carolyn Tryon. Dates for the production, the Broadway hit of three seasons ago that is set in the Scottish highlands, are April 5, 6 and 7.

to escape. The odd deal they make lifts the story a bit above the normal routine of prisoners breaking away under a hail of bullets. Richard Conte, Sam Jaffe, Audrey Totter are generally on the move.

Madeline (Wed.-Thurs.), a British production, is set in 19th century Scotland and emerges as a courtroom drama: the trial of Ann Todd for the murder of her French lover after he had threatened to expose their romance to her ultra-conservative family and friends. Unusually slow at first and inclined to be drawn out in the courtroom scenes but able to induce mounting suspense as it runs its course.

Sugarfoot (Fri.-Sat.) has the one unforgivable fault no good western should be guilty of: a plot that often drags. Randolph Scott, a somewhat effeminate Southerner who suddenly proves he's as tough as the next man, and Raymond Massey wage a continuing feud, with the latter as the villain. Even the Arizona country-side photographed in Technicolor doesn't make amends for the general lack of entertainment.

JERSEY POLL

has cut clear across political party lines. For example, in one camp Republican Senators Wherry of Nebraska and Taft of Ohio are joined with Democratic Senators Byrd of Virginia and George of Georgia in seeking to limit the President's power to send troops overseas.

In the other camp, Republicans Dewey and Strauss are in agreement with Democratic Senators Connally of Texas and Russell of Georgia in arguing that the President's power to send troops overseas should not be limited. Political insiders believe that the long and sometimes angry debate on this question will have a bearing on the 1952 GOP Presidential Race.

Some indication of how New Jersey voters feel on the matter is revealed in a survey by the New Jersey Poll. Findings show that more than three out of every five voters say voters:

"Some people say the President questioned are of the opinion that the President should not be allowed to send American troops overseas unless Congress first approves the decision. Those who hold this view outnumber by seven to four those who think the President should be allowed to make such decisions without a Congressional OKAY."

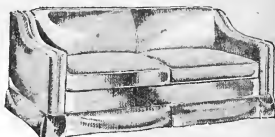

When New Jersey Poll staff reporters put this question to an accurate cross-section of New Jersey should not be allowed to send United States soldiers overseas unless Congress first approves it. Other people say that the President should have the power to send soldiers overseas when he feels the situation calls for it. With which group do you yourself agree?"

The results were:

Congress	62%
President	35

"Three of a kind," commented Judge Harrison.

He then ordered each defendant to ante up one year in the federal jackpot.

Miscellany. During television's portrayal of the Costello trial this week, the announcer commented: "Former Mayor O'Dwyer came in carrying a sheaf of papers about as thick as this book," and forthwith picked up a tome just published by the Princeton University Press appropriately titled, "The Open Society and Its Enemies."

Another television note: the Seminary Choir, with David H. Jones directing, will give an Easter concert, "Great Music," over channel 3 Sunday evening at 10:30.

Sons have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gillman, 219-C King; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Boyd, 217-A Halsey; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill, 222-C Harrison; a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hubbell, Lawrenceville Road.

Dr. Richard E. Shope of Kingston was in the Netherlands last week to receive an honorary degree in veterinary science from the University of Utrecht . . . the University Press will publish a volume entitled "Modern France: Problems of the Third and Fourth Republics," a compilation of papers presented last year at a four-day conference on that nation organized and supervised by Professor Edward M. Earle at the Institute for Advanced Study. The book, edited by Professor Earle, is expected to aid greatly in an understanding of French problems since World War I.

The Y.M.C.A. will hold its annual father and son banquet on April 20, with Captain Robert Danskin giving an illustrated lecture on "Greenland Adventure," a report on his experiences among Eskimos some 700 miles from the North Pole. Tickets go on sale next week, with George Reeves and Thomas Robbins head of the banquet committee.

Alfred J. Clements of 209 Harrison Street will retire April 1 as superintendent of the Princeton Water Co. after 21 years. Albert H. Davison of Grovers Mills will succeed him.

The Vassar Club will present the Blue Hill Troupe at the McCarter in "Trial by Jury" and "The Pirates of Penzance" on April 7. Mrs. Richard Baker, Jr. and Mrs. Datus Smith, Jr. are co-chairmen of the event, which will aid the club's scholarship fund.

A scholarship in memory of Professor Roy D. Welch has been established by the Smith College Club. Prof. Welch was head of the Department of Music at Smith before coming to Princeton. The award will be made to a resident of the Princeton area entering college next Fall; interested applicants should see Miss Elinor Purves, 15 Alexander.

Three boys who chopped down five trees along the Delaware and Raritan Canal in Trenton have finally admitted their guilt. Seems the deed was done on February 22 and they decided it was no time to tell a lie.
